

Job Opening

About VistaTek:

VistaTek is a 2nd generation family owned mold making and injection molding company. VistaTek takes a lot of pride in a progressive work environment. VistaTek strives for ways to improve, and looks directly to its employees for their opinions and expertise to help in decisions for equipment, software, and procedures. We are always looking for more people to help with VistaTek's continued success. If this sounds exciting to you, please apply for the position below.

Injection Molding Sr. Process Technician Full Time 1st Shift (Monday – Friday)

Education: High School Diploma or Equivalent

Experience: Minimum of 5 years processing, sampling, set-up, and/or equivalent experience

Position Summary:

The Sr. Processing Technician position is responsible for establishing molding parameters for injection molding process to ensure parts meet standards. Supports production operations with setups and troubleshooting of molding process.

Main Responsibilities:

- Sampling of new tooling and materials using scientific molding process
- Establish and maintain molding parameter setting into engineering documents
- Inspect sample parts to ensure accuracy and quality
- Optimize existing molding processes
- Establish positioning and sequence for robots, pickers and core pulls.
- Participate in and provide ideas for continuous improvement initiatives
- Supports Program Management and Manufacturing Engineering departments
- Manage and maintain mold location system and data base
- Support production operations as needed

Skills and Requirements:

- Desire to work in a fast-paced, team-oriented work environment
- Demonstrates mechanical aptitude and strong problem solving skills
- Ability to use inspection tools such as scales, calipers, dial indicators, etc.
- Demonstrates ability to follow oral and written instructions
- Must be able to communicate effectively verbally and in writing across multiple departments
- Demonstrates ability to make decisions with little direction or supervision
- Basic math and computer skills
- Maintain a clean and organized work area with an emphasis on safety, quality, efficiency, and utilization
- Adhere to all quality and safety standards
- Perform other duties as assigned by supervisor
- Must be flexible with work schedule

Preferred Qualifications:

- Two year degree and/or certificate in manufacturing technology, plastic injection molding, and/or related field
- Knowledge of decoupled/scientific molding
- Robotics and/or automation experience
- Experience in medical and automotive process development

If you are looking for a strong career in manufacturing with plenty of development opportunities, this is the place for you!

- Health Insurance
- Dental/Vision Insurance
- Life Insurance
- 401K
- Vacation
- 8 Paid Holidays

To apply for this position, please send resume to Julia Northwick. julia@vistatek.com

